

Small Group Study Questions:

Opening Question:

- Think of a meaningful conversation you've had with a stranger. What made that interaction memorable or impactful?

General Observation:

- In the sermon, the pastor talked about Jesus' conversation with the Samaritan woman at the well. What stood out to you about how Jesus approached and engaged with her?

Understanding the Message:

- The pastor outlined three types of conversations: good, God, and gospel. How would you describe each of these in your own words?
- What were some of the key principles the pastor shared about having transformative conversations? (e.g. staying alert, seeing appointments through stages, speaking authentically)

Personal Application:

- The pastor emphasized the importance of being ready for "God conversations" even when we're tired. How do you typically respond when unexpected opportunities to talk about faith arise? What challenges do you face?
- Reflect on a time when someone shared the gospel with you or you shared it with someone else. How did that conversation unfold? What made it effective or ineffective?

Action Steps:

- This week, practice being more intentional in your everyday conversations. Look for opportunities to move from "good" conversations to "God" conversations. What's one specific way you can do this?
- The pastor suggested practicing gospel conversations in low-stakes situations like rideshares. What's one place or situation where you could practice sharing your faith this week?

Sample Prayer:

"Lord Jesus, thank you for the example you set in your conversation with the Samaritan woman. Help us to be more aware of the opportunities you place before us each day to share your love and truth. Give us courage to move beyond surface-level interactions and speak authentically about you. May your living water flow through us to refresh others. In your name we pray, Amen."
